FORTUNATE | NEW EXHIBIT

The Vendue recently opened "Fortunate," the newest exhibition, which will be on view throughout the first floor of 19 Vendue through October 2019. The exhibition was co-curated by Robert Lange Studios and The Vendue's art team. Thirty artists created thirty works of art, each accompanied by the fortunes used to inspire them. This exhibit will help raise funds for local non-profit, I Heart Hungry Kids, and their mission of kids helping kids fight hunger.

FRED JAMAR | ARTIST-IN-RESIDENCE

Born in Belgium, Fred Jamar has a past painted with vast diversity, working as a Military Police Lieutenant and at JP Morgan International before dropping everything and moving to Charleston to become a full-time painter. His recent work has been dominated by Charleston cityscapes and marinas. Fred has developed a very whimsical color palette that transcends the daily scene into another world. He paints freely, seeking to capture the feeling of the place over the exact representation.

We invite you to stop by and meet Fred in his studio located in 26 Vendue and join us for a drink at the Drawing Room Lounge on Tuesday nights to watch him create some wonderful works of art!

GALLERY 26 | BREAKING THE SURFACE

exhibition by artist Matt Story

In this series of paintings, Matt Story captures the movement created by the figures as it moves underwater, specifically focusing on bright uplifting colors. Throughout his series he presents water as a metaphor for the deeper self. His models are suspended in her own self-awareness. She's immersed in her deeper self which is a familiar sensation that occurs to us while floating. Come check out these breathtaking large-scale oil paintings in Gallery 26.
